

Book Club General Questions for A Cruise to Murder

1. This book is marketed as a cosy mystery – do you think it fits into any other genre?
2. Who was your chief suspect throughout the book?
3. Which character did you dislike the most and why?
4. Did you still dislike that character by the end of the book?
5. Who was your favourite character and why?
6. Which characters did you empathise with?
7. How do you feel about how the story was told overall?
8. Which part of the book did you relate to the most?
9. How was tension/suspense built into the story overall?
10. What did you think about the setting?
11. What did you think about the ending?
12. Were there any surprises in the book for you?
13. What did you think of the way the author worked in red herrings?
14. How would you describe the book to a friend?
15. Would you read the next-in-series? If yes, what would you like to see change?